

The Stewart Family

This section of the family album is dedicated to all those family members that came before us. As you read on, you will find out facts about our family that you probably did not know before. You will find out their names, where they lived and their occupations. For various reasons, not every person in our family is listed. But hopeful after reading this small section, you will know more about our family history. With a lot of research, dedication, and help from other family members, I have been able to research our family back to slavery. I hope you enjoy reading.

Let begin, in 1855 a slave name Peter was born in Brunswick County, Virginia. Peter was owned by one of the richest men in Brunswick County at the time by the name of Mr. Peter Jones. Peter Jones, the slave, is listed on the 1880 U.S. Census as a Mulatto. Mulatto being defined in the 1800's as half white and half black. Mulatto was also used to refer to anyone that "looked" of mixed race. So it may be fair to assume that Mr. Peter Jones was the father of Peter Jones the slave. (I was not able to verified that fact).

At the time of the 1880 census Peter was a free man and worked as a farmer, and married to a woman named Margaret. Peter and Margaret were 25 years old in 1880 with a son named William and a daughter named Mattie. William was born in 1873 and was six years old at the time of the 1880 census. Mattie was born in 1874 and was 5 at the time of the census. Peter and Margaret also had a cousin named Lee and a niece named Julia living with them. Lee was 15 years old and Julia was 18 years old. Lee and Julia both worked on the farm. Margaret did not work. Peter, his wife Margaret along with the other household members could not read or write. But you have to also remember that it is only 15 years after slavery.

Because accurate information was not recorded on African-American during slavery and for years after, I found it very hard to get accurate information. The information from the census report does not match with what we have as the years the children were born.

By 1889 William (Peter's and Margaret's son) was 16 years old and married to Sarah. Sarah was born in 1877 and at the age of 13 she was married and had given birth to her first child. Agnes Jones was born September 1889. William and Sarah had 6 children Agnes born 1889, Peggy born 1892, Eddie born 1893, Georgia born 1895, Hattie born 1897, and Sally born 1899.

William Jones (Georgia's father) worked as a farmer to support his family and Sarah stayed at home. According to the 1910 U.S. Census Report, Eddie Jones, (Georgia's brother), was 16 years old and worked as a servant.

Eddie worked as a servant in BRUNSWICK County, RED OAK district. As a servant Eddie's duties might have included cooking, waiting tables, dish and pot washing, handyman duties, butler, chauffer-driver, mechanic, gardening, cleaning, repairs, and other odd jobs. Later Eddie married and moved from the Red Oak District to the Totora District.

To recap, we have the names of Georgia's parents (William and Sarah) and her grandparents (Peter and Margaret). We also have the names of her brother (Eddie) and sisters (Agnes, Peggy, Hattie and Sally).
